Win tickets to Dutch Classics

After the success of Luminiscence, another special musical performance is coming to the Oude Kerk in Delft. Dutch Classics brings well-known Dutch songs from the past and present, performed in a classical style.

A piano quartet will perform music by artists such as Doe Maar, Boudewijn de Groot, S10 and Goldband. André van Duin will share stories and memories related to the music throughout the evening. The church will also be filled with atmospheric visuals on large LED screens.

Dutch Classics will be performed at the Oude Kerk for two months starting Friday, November 6th, from Wednesday through Saturday.

And here's some great news: we are giving away 3 x 2 tickets!

Yes, I want to win the tickets!
